¶ The average man, woman and child of today will live five years longer than they would have lived with health conditions in America as they were twenty years ago.

¶ These figures are official. In 1901 the length of the average life in this country was 49 years. NOW it is 54 years.

¶ Are YOU getting yours?

¶ If you are—and you should—just remember that health education, the prevention of disease, is responsible for the five extra years that you will live.

¶ Five years more in which to enjoy your friends, five years more to spend with your loved ones, five years more to use and to profit by the many modern conveniences which the world today offers for your comfort. Five years more to watch the development of science, invention, and world affairs. The humble copper penny and the crisp dollar bill have been largely responsible for these extra years which you will live.

¶ Perhaps YOU have given some of these pennies and some of these dollar bills. If you have you can rest assured that you are getting your money's worth.

¶ The cheery little Christmas Seal which costs a penny has supplied the funds which have helped do the great work against disease in Knox County, in Maine and the United States.

¶ These little seals which bear the double barred red cross are being sold again this year. It is the sixteenth annual sale of these cheery little Christmas Seals—bearers of health and happiness. They are to be used on Christmas Gifts and December Mail. You will have a chance to buy some of these seals. Help extend your life five years more.

ROCKLAND'S CHAMPION FOOTBALL TEAM, IN STREET GARB

Sighing for more worlds to conquer, the Rockland High School football team recently closed its most successful season in late years, having suffered no defeat, and having been tied but twice.

Unforeseen breaks in the schedule prepared by Manager Lawrence Miller, deprived the team of a chance for a greater broadcasting of victories. Its offensive power was demonstrated, however, by the fact that it scored 133 points, as against 24 made by its opponents.

The team established a clean title to the Knox county championship when it defeated Camden High 37 to 0 in the first game, on the Broadway ground, and held Camden to a 6 to 6 tie on Camden's own field.

In the single act of wrestling the championship from Camden, local followers of the team see justification of the city's act in employing a trained athlete who devotes his entire attention to instruction in that department. This position is most capably filled by Lewis S. Crosby of Bangor, who was a letter man on the Colby College football team in 1917, and who had remarkable success as an athletic instructor for Edward Little High School in Auburn. If he has as much success with the baseball team as he did with the football eleven, the fans will feel like making him a present of City Hall and the Public Library, with Gay Park thrown in.

The Rockland team has been blessed with an exceptionally strong line this year, the "find" being Elmer Emery, not yet past 15, who has amazed the spectators by his pluck and skill in this, his first season.

In Captain Richard Reed the team feels that it has one of the best prep-school quarterbacks in the State. Lacking all the season under the handicap of a severe injury he has been a tower of strength to the eleven—powerful, speedy and alert. He is one of the most consistent ground gainers the team has ever had.

The halfback positions have been filled splendidly by two brothers—Otho and Clyde Record—who have excelled in all forms of athletics since they entered the school. Long gains of Otho Record have been one of the features of the season.

John Andrews, the fullback, is another powerful player, whom the team has been able to place much dependence upon this season in the way of ground gaining.

Letter men who played their final game with Rockland High this season are John Burkett, Edgar Crockett, Otho Record, Clyde Record and Richard Reed.

Substitute letter men who are not shown in the above picture were Clark Staples, end, Fred Knight back, Frank Stewart center, Jasper Chapin back, Thomas Fales tackle.

As previously announced in The Courier-Gazette, Herbert Baum has been elected captain for next season, with Nelson Crockett as manager and Philip Rounds as assistant manager.

The Athletic Association has been particularly fortunate this year in having as capable manager as Lawrence Miller. He handled baseball and football in a highly successful manner.

This season's football schedule resulted thus:

Rockland H. S. 33, Belfast H. S. 0.

Rockland H. S. 37, Camden H. S. 0.

Rockland H. S. 18, Morse H. S. of Bath 18.

Rockland H. S. 19, Belfast H. S. 0.

Rockland H. S. 6, Camden H. S. 6.

Rockland H. S. 14, Brewer H. S. 0.

THE PORTLAND ELECTION

Republicans Again Have a Walkover.

—State Metropolis Adopts Daylight Saving.

Mayor Carroll S. Chaplin, Republican, was re-elected for a second term in Portland Monday, receiving 7,162 votes to 3,952 for Samuel L. Bates, his Democratic opponent. He carried seven of the nine wards. Winfield S. Hovey, was named city assessor over Enoch W. Hunt by a majority of 2,782. William W. Shaw in Ward two, and James H. Walsh in Ward four, were the only Democrats elected to the board of aldermen. These wards also were the only ones to elect Democratic councilmen. William Bissett, Republican blind candidate in Ward seven and former resident of Vinalhaven was a winner by a comfortable margin.

Daylight saving won in the annual referendum by a vote of 6,192 to 4,943.

BUSY MEETING AHEAD

Chamber of Commerce To Discuss Live Matters Friday Night—"George Is Dead; We Must Do It."

(By Secretary MacDonald)

The first meeting of the membership of the Rockland Chamber of Commerce will be held in the Common Council rooms at the City Building at 7:30 p. m. Friday evening. This will without doubt be one of the most important meetings held by the association this year.

It is proposed to present amendments to the constitution which are absolutely necessary. Plans must also be worked out for the promotion of winter sports in Rockland, and a plan must be adopted at this meeting for the membership campaign to be staged during January. Other important matters will also be discussed and it is absolutely necessary that every member of this organization be present at this meeting. There is an old saying to the effect that a chain is only as strong as its weakest link, so let's see if we can eliminate this weak link and do our part in making our Chamber of Commerce an absolute success.

Rockland is not any different than any other community and if other communities have been benefited by Chambers of Commerce there is no reason why Rockland cannot be benefited by its Chamber of Commerce, but it cannot be benefited if the members of this organization always let George do it. It might be interesting to some of the people in Rockland to know that George died about the time the war started in 1917, so in that case we have got to do it—we cannot depend on him any longer.

Although only members will be allowed to cast votes at this meeting it is requested that every member who plans to attend take at least one non-member with him to show them just how our machine works.

This is not the only meeting that will be held. It is planned that during the second week of January to hold an open meeting and give an opportunity to others aside from the membership to hear a really good speaker on Chamber of Commerce work. The speaker we have made arrangements with for the January meeting has filled positions in all phases of Chamber of Commerce work, having been in the business upwards of 19 years, and being classified as an organization expert. This person spent nine years as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce in Dayton, Ohio, two years in Oklahoma City, three years in organization work rebuilding community organizations; was executive in charge of the United States Explosive Plant at Nitro, West Virginia, during the war, and filled the position as secretary of the Winnipeg Board of Trade during which period he served as secretary of the citizens' committee which destroyed the great Bolshevik movement in that city. This is the type of speaker we plan to have throughout the year and plans are now being made to hold a meeting every month for the membership at large as well as the regular weekly meetings which are being held by the board of directors.

It is expected that a great many members will avail themselves of this opportunity to meet and discuss their common problems. This is the only way we can effect a complete co-operation by rubbing elbows with our fellow-men and knowing his problem as well as our own.

A POSTMASTER'S LUCK

Ernest Rawley Hunted For Fox and Shot the Season's Largest Buck.

Many New Yorkers are under the impression that Maine is a veritable wilderness of pine forests and "wild beasts. If one of her citizens happened to forget to bring home some bacon, these deluded ones think it would be the easiest thing in the world to go out anywhere and shoot a deer before breakfast. Maine people of course know that there are several parts of the old Pine Tree State where such a thing would be rather inconvenient—unless they lived near an amusement park, a zoo or something of the sort. All of which is merely introductory to the fact that Ernest Rawley, postmaster of St. George, did just that the other day, only it wasn't before breakfast. He was gunning for fox along the Georges River, when he spied a magnificent buck swimming across the river from Cushing. Soon the noble animal walked up the St. George bank, shook his mighty antlers, and stalked majestically off.

While the buck was poking among apples under a tree in Glenmere, Mr. Rawley gave him a broadside with his shot gun. One charge of buckshot did the trick and Mr. Rawley had shot as fine a buck as has been seen in this locality. He weighed 250 pounds and his head was such a magnificent one that it has been sent to a taxidermist.

AT THE END OF THE DAY

There is no escape by the river. There is no flight left by the fen. We are compassed about by the shiver of the night of their marching men. Give a cheer!

For our hearts shall not give way. Here's to a dark tomorrow. And here's to a brave today!

The tale of their hosts is countless. And the tale of ours a score. But the palm is granted to the drumless. And the cause is more and more. Give a cheer!

We die, but not give way. Here's to a silent tomorrow. And here's to a stout today!

God has said, "Ye shall fall and perish: But the things that ye have done, I shall keep in my heart and cherish. When the worlds have passed in night." Give a cheer!

For the soul shall not give way. Here's to the greater tomorrow. That is born of a great today!

Now shine on the craven truckler. And the pulling things that move! We're a ragtag for our bugler. That outwears the wings of hope. Give a cheer!

For our joy shall not give way. Here's to the teeth of tomorrow. To the glory of today!

BIBLE THOUGHT —FOR TODAY—

Bible Thoughts memorized, will prove a priceless heritage in after years.

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT:—Love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; against such there is no law.—1 John 5:14, f

Answering the question "Is Portland Musical?" the Sunday Telegram expresses an affirmative conviction, declaring that there are probably more people in Portland proportioned to the total population who enjoy and appreciate good music than in almost any other city in the country, and giving two chief reasons therefor—because "Portland is a city where a very high average of intelligence prevails," and second the musical festival.

"That institution (says the editorial writer) maintained here for more than a quarter of a century, has been a liberal education in good music for the people of the city. As a result of the festival concerts, thousands of people of the city have become familiar with the best in music and with the best musicians. Knowing about music and musicians, the people of the city patronize the latter when they come here. Being well patronized the great artists continue to come. . . . Surely a city that can support a great musical festival like that which is annually held here, that owns a great organ and pays a municipal organist, that patronizes three or four musical courses which bring the great artists of the world here, cannot be said to be lacking in appreciation of music."

We are glad that Portland gives so much credit to the festival and we hope to see its support of that great institution not only maintained but appreciably augmented. The metropolis city can greatly help the whole State by so doing.

A Bangor despatch says: A donor who requests that his identity be kept a secret has given the Eastern Maine General Hospital $75,000, the check for the same being received today. The only information given out relative to the gift is that the check came from the western section of the country and that the donor is not a native of the city of Bangor.

Sometimes these things actually happen. We do not abandon confidence that some day out of the blue sky there is to flutter into Rockland a check for $200,000, one-half for the installation of a perfectly designed Y. M. C. A., the other half constituting an endowment fund for the adequate maintenance of such desirable institution.

In several Maine towns preparations are making to celebrate with a Community Christmas tree. Rockland and Camden in seasons past have scored great successes in this direction. The Courier-Gazette hears the query raised as to whether there is to be "anything doing" this year.

The convicted liquor seller who appeals from the dreaded jail sentence and furnishes bonds is only postponing the day of judgment. The old-time fashion of slipping out from under is no longer to be the vogue.

By a majority of nearly 1300 the citizens of Portland have voted in favor of daylight saving for 1923. That is a good way to settle the matter—let the people vote on it at the municipal election.

Portland went Republican Monday in a quite old-fashioned manner. Even the most optimistic admirer of Mr. Wilson will find difficulty in extracting from those returns an endorsement of the League of Nations.

Bangor closes the year by granting thirty divorces in superior court. With all of that city's modern improvements it ought not to be difficult for men and women to live together there successfully.

The conclusion of the Massachusetts engineers that they find conditions favorable for bridging the river at Bath is a step forward on the road of hope. That bridge is going to be built.

Winter sports in Rockland is a thing to root for.

Through the efforts of Postmaster G. H. Blethen, the people of Rockland are receiving one more first-class mail a day. This mail arrives in Rockland at 5.30 a. m. and many business houses appreciate this service, but the average business man, even though he may be rendered a personal service thereby, very seldom stops to consider what it means to receive a word in appreciation. Suggestion is made that business houses in Rockland which feel the benefit of this extra service by Postmaster Blethen, directly or indirectly, drop him a line to that effect, as this is a very creditable effort on his part, and he surely is entitled to the backing of the business firms of this city.

"Tim" Carroll, golf professional at the Samoset, who has been occupying a similar capacity at the Country Club in Franklin, Mass., for the past two months, was in this city recently for a short stay preliminary to his annual trip to Palm Beach. Weather like this makes his Rockland friends feel that "Tim" has got the right dope on the climate question.

Eugene M. Hall blew in from Vinalhaven on the wings of Tuesday morning's storm, and was most cordially greeted by friends who had not seen him since early last summer, when he was critically ill in Knox Hospital. He is now feeling very much himself again, and his appearance does not indicate the severe ordeal through which he passed.

BETTER HEALTH THE OBJECT

Sale of Christmas Seals and Health Bonds To Be Conducted In Knox County.

Comes now the annual sale of Christmas seals and health bonds, the proceeds of which will be devoted to a cause that interests everybody, a cause that is everybody's,—the conservation of public health.

All over the State this campaign will be conducted, and on a scale which is within the reach of the humblest means. A Christmas seal costs a penny; a health bond, which is sometimes called the big brother of the Christmas seal, is sold in denominations of from $5 to $1,000.

Knox county, with a population of around 25,000, is expected to purchase at least $25,000 worth of stamps and bonds. The sale will be directed by E. W. MacDonald, secretary of the Rockland Chamber of Commerce, who will summon to his aid lodges, churches, granges, business men and societies in general. Secretary MacDonald is busy enough with his own duties to satisfy the average man, but he is willing to make the extra effort for the reason that it is a burden which other chambers of commerce have freely adopted, and because he understands from government reports that the average life has been extended from 49 to 54 years since 1901 as the result of public health work.

The seals will be offered to every inhabitant of Knox county, commencing about the 15th of December.

"No community can prosper and develop without community health. This is the general principle on which the campaign is waged," said Walter D. Thacher, executive secretary of the Maine Public Health Association, who has been in the city the past two days, lining up the forces for the Knox county effort.

"What are you going to do with the proceeds?" he was asked.
"Devote them to the work of the Maine Public Health Association," was the reply. "This work is largely of an educational character. It furnishes correct information for the prevention of tuberculosis, control of cancer and reduction of infant mortality; it establishes fresh air schools; it teaches the vital importance of healthy teeth and conservation of eyesight; it deals with the control of social diseases; it emphasizes the importance of medical and dental examinations; it has to do with the establishment of public health nurses. And these are only a few of the high spots.

"A great State of Maine partnership has been formed for the purpose of making Maine the healthiest State in the Union. This partnership centers around the Maine Public Health Association. The collaborating partners are the Associated Industries of Maine, the State Chamber of Commerce, the Maine State Grange, the Maine Medical Association, the Maine Dental Association, the State Department of Health, the State Department of Education, the State Federation of Labor, the State Branch of the American Legion, and the State Federation of Women's Clubs. These combined forces have had a hand in mapping out the three-year program.

"The death-rate from tuberculosis has been reduced one-half in 15 years as the result of public health work. The mortality from cancer, which had been on the increase, showed a slight reduction since the first big campaign of education in 1921. There has also been a decrease in the deaths of infants under one year of age.

"The Maine Public Health Association is on the job every day fighting for the decrease of preventable diseases."

PARK THEATRE

William de Mille's Paramount production of "Clarence," featuring Wallace Reid, Agnes Ayres and May McAvoy, which is to be shown at the Park today and Friday, presents something really new in the film world, when one considers the past performances of the director, as well as the achievements of the stars named. This is that the picture is distinctly a comedy, not overburdened with plot, yet at the same time delivering a message that is quite worth while.

Clarence Smith is a collectorist, and also he is the only man in the world who ever drove army mules without swearing at them. He comes unostentatiously into the Wheeler household where barking and biting and bickering is of daily if not hourly occurrence and the family is on the point of breaking up, when he begins his work as fixer. His quiet, trustful nature manifests itself, and before long he becomes the confidant of every one in the house. It is then that with tact and patience he sets out to build up permanently the crumbling house of cards, and in the end he succeeds most happily.

Coming Saturday the feature picture is a Fox thriller "Without Compromise" with William Ferrum as the star, and is a he-man story that depends upon its rapid fire action and splendid cast for entertainment. Also on the same program is the fifth chapter of "The Leather Pushers" which has made a decided hit in Rockland. Monday Gloria Swanson will be seen in "The Impossible Mrs. Bellew."

The Coast Guard submarine cable ship Pequot, formerly a U. S. Army mine planter, is working along the Maine coast, overhauling cables. The ship is working near Libby Island at present, and from there will go to Mt. Desert Rock to repair the cable which broke during the summer. The Pequot Island cable near Seguin, will also receive attention. Commander Gray is in charge of the Pequot.

The schedule for the Belfast High school basketball team shows two games with Rockland High—one in Rockland Jan. 24, and one in Belfast March 16. Rockland has won three straight thus far, two from Brooks and one from Unity.

MacDONALD'S DEATH

Maine Coast Mission Worker Expires Suddenly While Boarding His Boat.

Rev. Alexander T. MacDonald, known all along the coast as superintendent of the Maine Coast Mission, dropped dead Monday, as he was boarding the missionary boat Sunbeam, at Northeast Harbor. While he had complained of not feeling well his death was entirely unexpected. For more than 20 years Mr. MacDonald had devoted his life to the physical, educational and spiritual needs of the people who live on the islands and at remote points along the coast, making periodical cruises in the missionary boat and sometimes relieving the necessity and at times in the roughest and coldest weather.

From a small beginning he had enlisted interest and assistance in his work which has become widespread and for some weeks he has been hard at work preparing to take Christmas boxes all along the coast, estimating that the Mission would make a happy Christmas for more than 1,200 children who otherwise would have little or none. His devotion to his work knew no limits.

Mr. MacDonald was a native of Prince Edward's Island and would have been 58 years old on Christmas Day. He graduated from Bowdoin College, lived for a time at Bath, held Congregational pastorates at Seal Harbor and in other places, but his life work was the Sea Coast Mission, with his home and headquarters in Bar Harbor.

COAL CARGO LOST

Schooner Jessie L. Leach Was Bound For Vinalhaven—Crew Picked Up.

The American schooner, Jessie L. Leach, bound from Port Reading, N. J., to Vinalhaven, with coal, foundered in a heavy sea 20 miles east of Thatcher's Island Saturday morning. It was learned when the Gloucester schooner Natalie Hammond arrived at Shelburne, N. S. Monday with the captain and crew.

When the schooner began to sink all hands took to a motor boat. Before they were picked up by the Natalie Hammond, nine hours later, Capt. Strout and the cook, Barney Gormley, both of Providence, R. I., had collapsed from exhaustion. The two other members of the crew were H. W. Montgomery of Calais and John Crouse of Finland.

The Maine Central offers special rates to Bangor next week on account of the State Grange sessions.

S. H. Woolworth who owns the 5 and 10 cent store across the street, and many others in many States, is reported critically ill in London.

Marshall Gilchrist reports 13 arrests last month, eight for hitting the can and five for taking articles which belonged to other persons.

A 10,000-gallon tank, intended as a receptacle for kerosene, was being installed yesterday at A. M. Moody's plant at the Northend.

Davis Tillson Condon who has been spending a fortnight's furlough with his mother, Mrs. Mildred Condon, has rejoined the U. S. S. Delaware at Charlestown Navy Yard.

L. W. Benner has sold his Waldoboro farm, known as the John Kaler place, to Edwin J. Moore of Rockland, who will occupy it with his family in the spring.

Members of American Hook & Ladder Co. are rustling tickets for the annual levee and ball, which will be held in Haverhill hall Friday night of next week. Some 10 or more nice souvenirs will be distributed.

Two big events in moving picture circles next week are: "The Three Musketeers" (featuring Douglas Fairbanks) at the Empire; and "The Storm," at the Park.

Prompt work by the Chemicals crew at the home of Miss Mae Ludwig, 19 Maverick street, saved a serious fire Tuesday afternoon. The fire had started where a stove pipe passed through a partition and worked into the floor above. The contents of one extinguisher quenched the blaze after the floor had been torn up.

A decided attraction is the big racoon in the window of the Rockland Hardware Co. The animal was recently cornered by the dog of John Garth, manager of the Alford Camps, and presented to A. C. Jones. Although only out of the woods two days, it is as tame as a kitten and will eat peanuts or candy from any donor's hand with a calmness of men in keeping with that of a household pet. The one is that which accommodated Bob Stevenson's turkey last week in the window of Scott & Co.

C. U. Russ is putting on the market this week a new eye-glass cloth and is looking for agents to take on its sale—adv.

City Clerk Keene has collected nearly $550 in sewer assessments thus far this year.

Erwin Maynard Spear and Kathleen Ruby Blackington have filed marriage intentions.

Becoming a citizen of the United States is losing none of its popularity. Fourteen applications have been filed with Clerk of Courts Griffin.

Extensive alterations in Tyler's Studio the past week now confine this establishment to one cosy room. Photographer Tyler announces the closing of his Waldoboro office and will give his entire attention to the Rockland office from now on.

J. E. Wheeler of Boston is here to supervise the construction work on the Berry-Lawrence garage. The work of building has received a decided check of late from delays in the shipment of materials. Enough has arrived now, however, so that constructive progress ought to be very definitely enhanced.

When the snow crackles under foot on the sidewalks, when the wind cuts like a knife, and when the gulls stand around in contented circles on the ice of The Cove—it is really cold. Just why these birds do not get cold feet, is more than any member of The Courier-Gazette force can figure out.

Thomas Thompson, who has been a traveling salesman for Thombs, Parker & Co. of Portland the past 11 years, and who has covered the local territory with headquarters in Thomaston and Rockland the last eight years, leaves the employ of that concern the first of the year, and has several offers from which to select his future vocation. Friends of the genial Tommy are hoping that his choice will include Rockland in his itinerary.

Polo fans are agog over tomorrow night's big show at the Arcade, when the new Rockland team will venture into fast company and tackle the Providence All Stars. The home team on this occasion will be headed by Billy Yale, the popular Portland rusher, who is to be playing manager of the locals henceforth. With him will come Gunn, another Portland star, who will play center, and Purcell, the former professional, who so delighted a big crowd here last season. Rodney Skinner, who played such a speedy game Thanksgiving night, will help besiege the visitors' goal. And of course old reliable "Bity" Wright will be everlastingly on the job as halfback. On the visiting team will be Joley (professional) Shannahan, Phinney, Aruda (professional) and Burke. The big game will begin at 8:30, sharp. An amateur game between Max Dyer's Pirates and Happy Day's Dreams will begin at 7:15, and there will be all sorts of fun in it. Telephone 856 (The Arcade) for your seats.

The beauty of great, golden sunsets, the awesome wonder of giant valleys and mountains, the deep spirit of sleeping snows; these are elements in the grandeur of "The Storm," which will sweep across the screen of the Park Theatre Thursday and Friday, Dec. 14-15. The picture starring House Peters was adapted from the play of the same name which took New York "by storm." Virginia Valli, Matt Moore and Josef Swickard are among the supporting players.—adv.

November is a dull month for tax collections, but the omnipresent Mr. Lovejoy turned into the treasury nearly $89,000.

G. H. Blethen has been selected by Claremont Commandery as its representative in the Masonic Temple Association for three years.

Rockport has the roller polo fever, and will put an amateur team in the field by Christmas time, it is said. Rockport has quite a number of clever skaters, and their presence in polo gear would be welcomed.

The Portland Express says: "Billy Yale of this city, one of the most popular polo players in Maine, has been selected by owner A. G. Packard of Rockland to manage and captain the team which will represent that city this winter. Yale's experience and wide acquaintance among the little red apple chasers will enable him to put a strong quintet on the Lime City surface."

The School Improvement League at Ingraham Hill is having an entertainment at the school house tonight, which the public is invited to attend. There is quite a bit of rivalry in the Ovi's Head schools just now and Principal William R. Powers of the Ingraham Hill School is in the lead, for the present at least. The pupils are making excellent progress under his instruction.

Fox stories this season are by no means confined to the mimics. Chester Robbins, the popular taxi man for the Berry Bros. Co., tells one—how he and Tommy Thompson were motoring along the shores of Lake Megunticook Tuesday forenoon, when they started up a big black fox. Neither "Newt" nor Tom had a gun aboard, and all they could do was tearfully follow the course of the valuable animal as he scooted across the lake and disappeared in the distance. Here's a case of where "Newt" didn't hold him.

The Rockland halfback, Wright, substituted on the Portland professional team Monday night, and, of course, delighted the fans. The Evening Express said: "Al 'Bity' Wright, the grand old man of Bath appeared at halfback for the home club, and put up a whale of a defensive game. Wright made a great hit with the crowd. Several times he was called on to mix it up along the boards with big Jean, and he never shirked the job. Once he scooped the ball out of a fracas with Gunn and hooked it 50 feet into the cave." Rockland followers of the game are naturally pleased to see "Bity" make good in fast company, but don't want Portland to commence flirting with our bulwark of defense.

A. M. Graham of Boston, traveling representative of the International Bible Students' Association, Brooklyn, N. Y., will deliver their December world-wide lecture on "Satan's Empire Falling." The municipal officers have issued licenses to Mark H. Randall, Purchase street school; W. R. Wiley, Park Theatre and Empire Theatre; Jerry L. Sullivan, Training Station building.

G. W. Bacheider is again the owner of the fast mare Merlyn, whose record has been lowered the past season from 2:15 to 2:11.4, while driven by Irving Pottle. Her new record was made at Brockton Fair.

Tony Cross, who was discharged by Judge Miller Monday morning, when the prosecution failed to "name the date of an alleged single sale of intoxicating liquor, was promptly re-arrested, and a new date was named in the warrant. At the second trial Cross was found guilty, fined $100 and costs and sentenced to two months in jail. He appealed and furnished bail.

Mrs. J. A. Morey has joined the clerical staff at the Hastings dry goods store. The success of the firm's recent sale was so much of a success that the firm, on the threshold of the holiday rush, found it necessary to make a hasty replenishing of stock. Albert M. Hastings has been in Boston this week for that purpose, accompanied by Mrs. Hastings.

William A. "Mutt" Anderson, a senior at Carnegie Technology, has been unanimously elected by the active members of the Alpha Tau fraternity, on account of excellence in scholarship and his popular personality. Young Anderson, who was made a Mason in Rockland, is now a brother of the 32d degree. Rockland friends are always well pleased to hear of "Mutt's" progress.

Education week affords an opportunity for friends of education to visit the schools and give a word of encouragement to the scholars and the teachers. Friday afternoon will be open-house day in the schools. Everybody is welcome. The public is urged to come and lend their interest to this practice of visiting the schools. Friday afternoon is the time. The women of the city should come and see the schools as a new civic duty. You will see, for the most part, the regular work carried on day by day. Make a date with yourself for this school open-house day.

The annual meeting of Pleasant Valley Grange was held Tuesday night and these officers were chosen: Master, A. S. Bartlett; overseer, Warren E. Gardner; lecturer, Mrs. Warren E. Gardner; steward, A. J. Tolman; assistant steward, A. S. Bartlett; Joley assistant steward, Miss Marie Brown; treasurer, F. E. Post; secretary, Mrs. Bessie Sullivan; chaplain, Mrs. A. S. Bartlett; gate keeper, F. A. Blackington; Ceres, Mrs. F. E. Post; Pomona, Mrs. Pauline Quinn; Flora, Mrs. Mabel Bowley; executive committee for 1923, F. A. Blackington, Sidney Ames and F. E. Post. Three applications for membership were accepted, and two new ones were received. The degrees will be conferred two weeks hence, and F. A. Blackington was authorized to select a degree team from neighboring Granges to perform the work. Supper was served Tuesday night under the direction of Mrs. F. E. Post.

Destroyer Putnam has been in port since Monday night, her errand here being to put the Naval Course in order for her approaching trial, the date of which is tentatively fixed for Wednesday, Dec. 13. The destroyer Cushing will act as tender for the trials.

Well over 100 persons turned out to the Parent-Teacher meeting last night and listened to a fine program and some short speeches. A detailed account of the program will appear in an early issue. The next meeting is called for Jan. 3.

Rockland Lodge, F. & A. M., had a good turnout Tuesday night, the occasion being past masters' night. In the chairs were the following officers: John A. Karl, W. M.; Harry L. Richards, S. W.; William R. Lufkin, J. W.; Israel Snow, treasurer; A. I. Mather, secretary; L. R. Kellar, S. D.; Frank P. Trafton, J. D.; Simeon M. Duncan, chaplain; Orel E. Davies, S. S.; R. S. Clement, J. S.; Clarence E. Daniels, marshal; A. T. Crockett, tyler. The Master Mason's degree was conferred upon Irving L. Bray and Jacob Green. An orchestra furnished enlivening music while the Eastern Star women folks were serving an extra nice supper.

Rev. Robert E. Laite, former pastor of the Congregational church in Warren, has been in the city this week in the interest of the Boston firm of E. D. Sweet & Richards, which he is successfully representing in the capacity of bond salesman. Mr. Laite recently came into the public eye when he resigned his pastorate in Bangor because the salary was not sufficient to support his family of eight. He is now pastor of the church in Oldtown, with bond selling as a side line. "I am only one of a thousand pastors in New England confronted by the same problem," Mr. Laite told a Courier-Gazette reporter.

The Methodist fair, scheduled for yesterday and today, opened in a very satisfactory manner. The handsomely decorated booths were laden with a wealth of desirable articles and the attendance was very pleasing to the management. The fair continues today and closes tonight with an entertainment under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Ellingwood, which is assurance of its quality. Detailed account of the fair is deferred to the Saturday issue. Program for tonight's entertainment: Piano solo, Miss Edith Benner; reading, Mrs. Warren Gardner; sunflower drill, 10 girls; vocal solo, Miss Marianne Crockett; song, "Four Little Maids at Tea"; violin duet, Misses Lucy Marsh and Adelaide Cross; reading, Mrs. Grace Rollins; vocal solo, Miss Gladys Jones; play, "How the Story Grew"; "Mrs. Brown," Mrs. Ella Lurvey; "Mrs. Green," Mrs. Nettie Stewart; "Mrs. Bean," Mrs. Mary Gardner; "Mrs. Rice," Mrs. Mary Little; "Mrs. Doolittle," Mrs. Ida Simmons; "Mrs. Snow," Mrs. Abbie Connors; "Mrs. Taylor," Mrs. Thelma Stanley; "Mrs. White," Mrs. Grace Rollins.

In an endeavor to serve the public more fully, Crie's Gift Shop offers to wrap Christmas packages for mailing, free of charge. This applies whether the goods are purchased at their store or elsewhere. If boxes, fancy seals or cards are required, these will be furnished at a nominal price, but absolutely no charge is made for wrapping paper, twine and service.—146 and 148.

EMPIRE THEATRE

Tomorrow at the new Empire another of those popular double programs will greet all patrons at this cozy playhouse. Lois Wilson and Jack Mulhall in "Broad Daylight" is the leading feature telling the story of a young man who was regenerated by the love of a pretty woman. The second feature is a Goldwyn picture "The Man With Two Mothers" with Mary Alden, who will be remembered as the mother in the "Old Nest." Cullen Landis and Sylvia Breamer are also in the cast and present the sort of entertainment you will love to see on the screen. A comedy and a two reel western complete the program.

Saturday, the fan's favorite Dustin Farnum in "Yosemite Trail," a story of the great Yosemite Valley and decorated with thrills and fast action as only Farnum knows how to do them. On the same program will be seen Zane Grey's great action story, "Golden Dream" which grips you and holds you like tongs of steel. The last episode of "Go-Get-Em-Hutch" will also be shown. This chapter story will be replaced next week with Elmo Lincoln in a wonderful wild animal serial of the African Jungles, "The Adventures of Tarzan." It is a jungle romance through the city of gold and will afford splendid entertainment to old and young alike.

Starting next week December 14th, the Empire will open three days a week and the big attraction in celebration of the event will be Douglas Fairbanks in "The Three Musketeers." Manager Templin states that just as soon as he can get his programs arranged he will have the Empire open every day in the week for the presentation of the best there is in photoplays and continue the double feature program—adv.

SUNSET

A shooting match was held here on Thanksgiving day. The prizes were ducks and a goose and were won by Moses Annis, Walter E. Scott, P. J. Eaton and William Raynes.

Mrs. Miller E. Colby is confined to the house with a bad cold.

Mrs. Rose Packard is spending the winter in Rockland.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Sellers returned from Boston Saturday.

Charles A. Packard spent a few days last week at North Deer Isle, as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Martha Saunders.

Elmer Eaton and Alfred and Rodney Dunbar returned Tuesday from a successful gunning trip down east. They report game very plentiful.

George Brown is home for a vacation. The Church Aid met at the home of Mrs. Lewis W. Sylvester Wednesday evening and on Friday evening met with Cecile V. Larkin. A Christmas sale will be held this week in the vestry.

APPLETON

Wayne Bennett of Wollaston, Mass., is the guest of his cousin at Maynard Brown's. Mrs. Olive Fogg and children are at home after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wood, Searsboro.

Clarence Ames was in Camden Friday. Shirley Keene of North Appleton visited her cousin, Frances Fogg recently. Her sister Verian was here the two last days of the week.

The school flag staff has blown down. Are we to have another, or wait until Mr. Freeman comes again? He worked hard to get it righted and it seemed nice to see the colors waving.

THE KINDLY WORD

[For The Courier-Gazette]
The kindly word—oh, speak it now.
To those you meet today,
Although the hair be white as snow
And querulous their way.

There's many who feel the cruel scorn,
Or the sharpened couch of grief,
Who all their lives must lonely mourn
For death to bring relief.

The world cares naught for the broken heart
Or the heart with sorrow bowed,
Tis cruel and cold, with a venomous dart,
Yet sad at the gloomy shroud.

I have no love for the loveless smile
That covers the shadowed soul;
But kindly smile and the soulful jest
Are truly worth the while.

Oh, keep not back the kindly word,
The pleasant word of cheer,
The happy smile, the laughing jest,
To lesson or dry a tear.

A happy song from a gladsome heart
Is a boon to many aiven,
That falls as water on parched throat,
Or ascends as a prayer to heaven.

Keep back the cruel, idle jest,
That falls on the wounded heart,
And hush the tongue that unconfessed
Is meant for a poisonous dart.

But speak the loving, kindly word
To cheer along the way,
And sing, as cheerfully as a bird
And hush sad hearts—today!

Appleton, Dec. 4. Mrs. George Ames.

EAST APPLETON

Arta Gushue was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ames Saturday.

Mr. Maynard, a Colby College student, and teacher of the High School in Searsboro, is a very instructive and helpful sermon at Community church, Appleton, Sunday.

A telegram from their son Mark, a Colby College student, states that his fraternity house the Lambda Chi Alpha was burned to the ground and several lives lost.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ames and sons Edward and Richard were entertained Thanksgiving Day at the home of Rev. E. S. Upton, Union.

Miss Marguerite Gushue has gone to Pawtucket, R. I., to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. James Emery.

Miss Rose Ripley has returned from Rockland hospital.

Mrs. Fern Mink Dodge is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robie Robbins.

NORTH HOPE

The neighbors and friends of Geo A. Hall gave him a surprise party Tuesday evening to celebrate his birthday. They presented him with a fine clock on which were five candles. He politely informed them there should have been several more to conform to his birthday.

Refreshments were served and a happy hour spent.

L. A. Bennett met with a painful accident Thursday by injuring his foot while hauling logs. He is using crutches today.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wentworth spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Hall.

Mrs. Daniel Ludwig spent Thanksgiving in Bangor.

A chopping bee was given Veranus Pease for friends last Saturday.

Our neighbor, G. N. Bacheelder, has a new industry that of producing salt. It has been found that the water on what is called the beach shore, produces a very fine grade of salt.

It was tested last summer by Prof. Lewis Allen, who is Director of the Westfield Testing and Research Laboratories of Westfield, Mass., who spent several weeks at the Anchoorage. He had also made tests in a number of States along the coast, but found this to be of a far superior quality. Suitable apparatus and directions for producing the salt have been furnished Mr. Bacheelder by Prof. Allen, and he is working under these and from those of the Virginia Food Co. of New York City. Samples have been sent to several large laboratories and all pronounce it to be of a very high grade. It contains 12 valuable ingredients. One quart of water produces one ounce of salt.

JAMES DONDIS

352 MAIN STREET, ROCKLAND

There Is No Substitute for Quality

When you buy a house you make sure that the foundation, the walls and the roof are constructed for permanence. Buy a motor car in the same way.

The sturdy body of the Studebaker Light-Six Sedan is an admirable example of substantial body-building. It is constructed of the finest materials and with a high degree of craftsmanship to give years of satisfactory service—no makeshift construction merely to meet a price.

Eight stout pillars, from floor to roof, insure permanent strength and rigidity. The four wide-opening doors are a real convenience in getting in and out. Broad windows provide clear vision in every direction.

Seats are of generous proportions with deep springs to give lasting comfort. The upholstery is of mohair velvet plush, as durable as it is attractive. The heater will give warmth and comfort on cold days.

The Light-Six has proved its reliability on the highways of the world. The ample power, quietness and remarkable flexibility of its motor are a source of continuous satisfaction. It is easy to handle in traffic. Constant gear shifting is unnecessary because it throttles down to a walking pace in high gear. Vibration, which is so annoying in closed cars, is virtually eliminated.

The low price is due to complete manufacture by Studebaker in one of the most modern and complete automobile plants in the world. Middlemen's profits are eliminated and the savings are passed on to the buyer.

THOMASTON

Miss Letitia Creighton expects to leave Saturday for Steelton, Pa., where she will spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. James Creighton.

The Meeting House Hill Club met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Robert Watts.

Miss Anna Dillingham has been spending the past week with Miss Helen Carr.

The Bridge Club took dinner at the Knox Hotel Tuesday evening.

The Parent-Teacher Association held a very successful meeting in the Baptist vestry last evening, which was largely attended. W. G. Mallett, principal of Farmington Normal School read an interesting paper on "Education." The musical program consisted of the High School orchestra, double quartet, and duets by Misses Constance Bowes and Margarette Beatty. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ruth Brackett. A very gratifying report of the growth of the School Building Fund was presented by Miss Mary McPhail, president of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Clark arrived Tuesday from New York and are the guests of Mrs. Levi Clark.

Mrs. Abraham Block and daughter Bessie have returned from a visit in Boston.

Tomorrow night's pictures are from the "big time" circuit. Manager Prescott presents Thomas Jefferson in the world famous classic "Rip Van Winkle" followed by the serial "Perils of the Yukon" and the usual comedy feature.

The engagement of Miss Bertha L. Merrill and Miles F. Ham, both of Augusta, was announced Saturday evening, at a party given at the home of Miss Merrill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Merrill. Miss Merrill is a graduate of Cony High School, for two years was a student at the New England Conservatory of Music and has been prominent in musical circles in Augusta. Mr. Ham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Ham, formerly of Thomaston. He is a graduate of the U. of M. in the class of 1920, and is a member of the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is now attending the Bentley School of Accounting in Boston.

BURIAL IN THOMASTON

Funeral services were held in Belfast Tuesday for Eben Mank, the young man who met death Sunday morning by the accidental discharge of his gun in the hands of Alfred Dunbar. In the latter's home Saturday night, the remains were taken to young Mank's former home, Thomaston, where he was laid to rest beside his father Everett Mank who died about eight years ago in Belfast. Besides his mother, Mrs. Lena Wotton Mank, he is survived by several brothers and sisters.

CAMDEN

Mrs. S. A. Colcord was called to Waterville Monday by the death of her nephew, Alton Andrews, who perished in the Colby College fire. The young man was well known here and much sympathy is extended to his family.

Thirty-five members of the W. O. Hewett Co's staff remained after hours Tuesday evening, and fortified by a nice supper of baked beans, cold meats, salads, etc. resolved themselves into a "trimming bee." For the benefit of the uninitiated it is explained that the "trimmers" were decorating the store for the holiday season. The ground floor and aisles received attention from the workers Tuesday night, and looks very attractive with their greens and their arches. Of course John Newman was boss trimmer.

Dr. W. M. Spear has been in Portland for a few days in the interest of the Dirigo Moving Picture Co.

David Goldberg returned yesterday from Portland, where he has been for a few days.

Miss Thelma Andrews of Norton's Island spent the weekend with her sister, Theo Andrews, at 13 Main street.

Mrs. W. A. Richardson and grandson Maurice A. McKusick, Jr., Mrs. C. E. Bartlett, Mrs. Mamie Carroll and daughter, Miss Wilmer Carroll, were the guests of Mrs. Richardson's brother, Rev. P. E. Miller at Tennant's Harbor recently.

A luncheon and auction party took place at the Country Club yesterday, with the usual high percentage of enjoyment, marking one of the events of the winter program. Mrs. A. S. Littlefield was chairman of the committee, assisted by Mrs. A. S. Black, Mrs. G. W. Smith, Mrs. A. F. Lamb, Mrs. B. B. Smith and Mrs. E. M. O'Neil. Chicken pie was the chief course of a very delicious luncheon. Auction prizes were disposed of as follows: Mrs. A. S. Burpee, box of bulbs; Mrs. H. E. Jackson, perfume; Mrs. W. M. Rhodes, cards; Mrs. G. W. Smith, bath salts; Mrs. A. J. Bird candy; and Mrs. W. C. Bird, cards.

Leslie Clark and Maynard Clark of Damariscotta Mills arrived in the city yesterday to see their father, who is in the Silsby Hospital.

Miss Isabelle Andrews entertained the "Wee-Wee" Club, Tuesday evening at her home on Myrtle street. The evening was happily enjoyed with victrola and piano music, after which refreshments were served.

Miss Merle Merry has returned to Farmington, after spending Thanksgiving with her parents. She was accompanied as far as Lewiston by Mrs. H. W. Merry and daughter Helen.

In round numbers a hundred persons enjoyed at the First Baptist Church last evening, an exceptionally attractive menu, served by the men of the society under the efficient chairmanship of Vesper A. Leach with John M. Richardson as head waiter and the men becomingly aproned. This was the annual "men's night" and a great success. A musical program featured the after-supper period, which included songs by Mrs. E. L. Yeazie and Mrs. E. P. Browne, duets by Mr. and Mrs. Yeazie and Mr. and Mrs. Browne, and quartet selections by Messrs. Palmer, Cassens, Greene and Hagar, the accompaniments by Miss Elsa Hayden, Miss Helen Fuller and Mrs. Browne.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Robbins and son Thad leave today for Pratt, Kansas, where they will spend the winter with Mrs. Robbins parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad C. Carver.

Fifty couples attended ladies' night at the Elks' Home last evening, and just an even hundred persons were glad they were present. An especially nice supper, which came under the management of Mrs. Charles W. Proctor and Mrs. C. O. Perry, was followed by an evening of auction. Another function of this nature will be given shortly after Christmas.

The storm Tuesday afternoon did not deter several members of the Kallioch class of the Baptist church from taking the 1.40 car for Glen Cove, their destination being the home of Mrs. Arthur B. Packard, whose hospitable gates were open wide to receive them, and where each one was most cordially greeted. The house was once the Merrill homestead and indeed is a slightly place. Although the thickly falling snow obscured the view over the bay, somewhat, from the windows one could get a very clear idea of what the beauty of the scene might be on a clear and sunny day. tion and sewing made the time pass quickly and 5 o'clock found the ladies waiting for the home-bound car, having passed a very pleasant afternoon.

Miss Lucy Fuller of Rockland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Fuller, will take part in a radio concert of the combined Glee and Mandolin Clubs of Lassell Seminary, Auburn, Mass., to be broadcasted by The Shepherd Stores, W.N.A.C. Boston, Friday night. An unusual feature of the concert is that it is the first radio concert ever given by an exclusive girls' school musical organization.

On account of Temple Hall being in use for the supper of King Solomon Temple Chapter, Miss Harvey's first lesson in ball room dancing will be held in the Odd Fellows hall today. Kindergarten class at 3.15, intermediate at 4.15, advanced at 5 o'clock.

MANY GOAT RIDERS

Rockland Encampment Confers Royal Purple Degree On 63.

Rockland Encampment, I. O. O. F., is having the biggest year in its history. Sixty-eight new members have already signed the constitution and there are two more meetings this year in which the "Committee for 100" can bring in their play things for the goat. Rockland Encampment was instituted Aug. 17, 1882, with 11 charter members. Past Chief Patriarch John Colson is the only surviving charter member. During its 40 years' existence the encampment has initiated 444 members, with 1922 showing the largest gain in membership.

Last Wednesday night, after fortifying themselves with a delicious supper these 63 Odd Fellows were initiated through the mysteries of the Royal Purple Degree.

MRS. JULIA H. HALVORSON

Thanksgiving Day at 1.26 in the afternoon, in Russell Hospital, Brewer, Mrs. John Halvorson came to the end of her earthly journey. Surrounded by loved ones, and with perfect trust in her Saviour, Mrs. Halvorson calmly passed her last words were these, "My Saviour is very near me; I shall not be moved."

Mrs. Halvorson (Julia Christensen) was born in Rosenberg, near Trondheim, Norway, Sept. 10, 1858. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Christensen, being the youngest of a family of eight children. She spent her girlhood and younghood in her native country. When little over 30 years of age, she came to America, landing in New York, where she lived among relatives for a few years. At the age of 33 she came to Rockland, where on Sept. 22, 1891, she was married to Capt. John Halvorson of this city. Since that time, with the exception of a few years spent in Brooklyn, she has resided in this place. Mrs. Halvorson was a woman with a real force of character. She was possessed of a strong Christian faith and had an influence for righteousness wherever she went. She was a woman of deep convictions, and was unafraid to express them. With these qualities were mingled refinement, gentleness and unselfishness. She was a lover of her home, a devoted mother and faithful wife. But her interest went out beyond her home, and she was solicitous for the welfare of all. Her heart went out to those in need and the loneliness of the poor especially appealed to her. Many times the inmates of the Almshouse have been cheered by the services and gifts which came to them through her efforts. In the church, her voice was even lifted in testimony for the Christ whom she loved. In personal conversation and by spreading of tracts among the people, she carried on her mission. The spirit of service characterized her entire life. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from Littlefield Memorial church, Rev. O. W. Stuart officiating. His words were excellently chosen. The large attendance, as well as the beautiful floral tributes, attested to the esteem in which Mrs. Halvorson was held. A mixed quartet tenderly sang two selections—"Nearer My God to Thee" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Beside her husband, Mrs. Halvorson leaves one daughter, Martha E. (Mrs. Howard A. Welch) of Brewer, and Joseph L., who with his wife, lives in Brooklyn, also the little grandson Howard, Jr. with whom she took much comfort. Martin Engelsen and Mrs. William Dean of this city (nephew and niece of the deceased) also mourn the loss of one who was very near to them. While her loved ones mourn her loss, and miss her presence, they take courage from her earnest life and comfort in the assurance, that, through Christ who loved her, she is more than conqueror.

The body was tenderly laid to rest in Achorn cemetery. The bearers were Martin Engelsen, William Dean, Captain Henry Johnson, and Capt. Niels Nelson.

CXXXIX.

"The law is broad and deep and dangerous," wrote a friend of ours who is studying at Harvard Law School, "but I do not anticipate that they will start rocking the boat to any alarming extent until June."

Yes, it would sometimes appear to be of formidable depth, width and risk, but then, on the other hand, it often seems to be pretty shallow and obvious and crossable, to the extent of a great many being able to evade it without so much as dampening the soles of their shoes. As our philosophically inclined friend, Hambone, says: "there's too many as comes up de street to jail linked ahms wif a pelliceman, an' purty soon goes down de street linked ahms wif a lawyer."

With a humble and apologetic bow we submit the following to those who are of the belief that justice can be attained within the sanctums of a court. We do not quite know what to call this thing. It does not particularly matter, other than it was written when in a mood to feel that the law is shallow and obvious and crossable, rather than "broad and deep and dangerous." For lack of a better name, it shall be called a play.

BARNEY THE BOOTLEGGER GETS HIS

Who Threw the Mash Down Matilda's Neck?

Persons of the play
Barney the Bootlegger.
Lawyer Gink—for the defense.
Matilda, Barney the bootlegger's sweetheart.

His Honor, the Judge.
The Jury.
The Sheriff.

Time—Any old time.
Place—Any old courtroom.

(The courtroom is crowded with spectators, lawyers, witnesses, jury-men and the machinery of the law. The judge is looking over some papers.)

LAWYER GINK—Your Honor, we will waive the reading of the writ and enter a plea of "not guilty."

(Two hours have passed, during the course of which nothing of any particular moment has taken place or been accomplished, other than to afford the jury a chance to take a snooze.)

SHERIFF—Well, at two o'clock I knocked at the door. My two deputies stood on either side of me. This young lady here came to the door. She was dressed in a crepe de chene dressing gown—

LAWYER GINK—Your Honor, I object.

HIS HONOR—Upon what grounds?

LAWYER GINK—Because I do not think the sheriff knows crepe de chene from broadcloth.

HIS HONOR—You may ask him.

LAWYER GINK—How did you happen to say that this young lady's dressing gown was made of crepe de chene?

SHERIFF—Because it looked it.

LAWYER GINK—Why are you particularly qualified to judge at a glance the substance of feminine apparel?

SHERIFF—I was floor-walker in a dry goods store at Liberty once.

LAWYER GINK—How long were you employed there?

SHERIFF—Five years.

LAWYER GINK—During the time that you were there, how many yards of crepe de chene were sold and to whom?

SHERIFF—I could not positively state.

LAWYER GINK—Your Honor, if this man does not know how many yards of crepe de chene were sold while he was there, he is not competent to tell whether that dressing gown was made of crepe de chene or broadcloth.

HIS HONOR—Sheriff, you may go on with your story.

SHERIFF—This crepe de chene young lady came to the door. She then ran to the foot of the stairway and yelled: "Barney, throw out the life-line!" Then she brushed past us and went outdoors. We went upstairs.

In a back room was a stove with a fire in it. From the stove to an open window there was a trail of something that looked wet and smelled boozy. At the open window stood the defendant. He was leaning out the window and saying: "Look out down below!"

HIS HONOR—And where did you find this tank of sour mash?

SHERIFF—It was on this young lady's head, your honor and she was quite unconscious.

LAWYER GINK—And now, Tilly, will you take the stand and tell the jury in your own way just what happened.

MATILDA—Well, I don't just clearly recall what happened after that tank hit me, but before that I can remember everything just as plain as though it was yesterday. I was going across the street to tell Barney's mother that we had callers, when suddenly I heard a strange whirring sound. I looked up, and sure enough, there was an aeroplane circling about over my head. This interested me and I stopped to watch it. Soon I saw that it was being chased by another plane. Down, down they came, straight for our little house, or rather for Barney's house. It seemed as though one of them would actually strike me. I stood there rooted to the spot. I screamed. Suddenly I saw something hurtled with unbelievable force from the forward plane. It was this tank of sour mash and this copper still. It struck me fairly on the head and everything got all black. I don't know what in the world they could have been doing with those awful smelling things, for they both circled off just before things got all black for me.

(Matilda is a very comely miss, with blue eyes that seem to light up upon occasion and twinkle from the sheer joy of living. She is dressed in a very natty sport-suit. Her stockings are silk. She smiles easily. She has splendid teeth.)

LAWYER GINK—You have heard, gentlemen, what the young lady had to say. I think there is no doubt among your well-ordered minds but what she has conclusively proven that this apparatus could not have come from the house of this splendid young Barney, here. Gentlemen, I leave the case to your good judgment. (The jury file out and return in ten minutes.)

FOREMAN OF THE JURY—Your Honor, after the most careful deliberation, we have found that the defendant is "not guilty."

AMONG THE SCHOOLS

News of the Busy Educational World In and Outside Of Knox County.

Tomorrow is the general visiting day in the city schools. It is the duty and privilege of every parent and citizen to visit a class if possible.

McLain School

Pupils from the three seventh and three eighth grades have been making letters and figures for National Education Posters in the drawing classes the past week. Miss Cleveland chose the following pupils from Grade 8A to put the posters together: Eleanor D'Amelio, Ethel Rackliff, Palmer Pease, Raymond Cross, Cedric French, Helen Kirkpatrick, Sybil Stearns, Arthur Levensaler, Elizabeth Annis, Robert McCarty, Evelyn Perry, John Scott, Ethel Quinn, Peter Pilligane, Ruth Stearns, Gladys Harrington, Edna Gregory, Dorothy Grey and Estelle Hall. Grade 8A closes its work on the "Columbus and Pilgrims Pageant" this week. They gave the entire program in their own room yesterday, and some of its most interesting parts was repeated at the High School last evening. This room has had an average of 98.59% in attendance for the third month and no cases of tardiness or dismissal.

Ranks are showing a gradual increase. Seven names are on the roll of honor this month: May Johnston, with an average of 96.67; Ethel Quinn, 95.50; Mary Sylvester, 95.50; Edith Raye, 95.33; Ensign Winchenbaugh, 95.33; Evelyn Perry, 95.16; Ethel Rackliff, 95.16. The pupils have seated themselves according to rank and each aisle has chosen a name. Each pupil's house number will be his average for the month. The aisles have chosen the following names: Out to Win Terrace, Ambition Drive, Striving Avenue, Going to Win Street, Trying to Win Terrace, Gaining Lane, Going to Succeeded Square.

The following pupils of Grade 8C have their names on the Honor Roll for having the highest average in their studies during the last month: Sydney Segal, Eva Brown, Kenneth Overlock and Bradford Burgess.—The best South American scrapbooks were made by Kenneth Overlock, Margaret Lawrence, Sydney Segal, and Arlene Chaples.

The pupils of Grade 8B are making a school magazine. Archie LaCrosse is Editor-in-Chief; assistant editor, Richard Bird; sporting editor, Albert Wilson; literary editor, Mildred Brewer; advertisements, Kendall Green; social editor, Irene Taylor; poetry, Annie Leonard. The date of publication is Friday, December 4. The pupils are writing compositions and essays suitable to Educational Week and will read them in school session on Friday afternoon.—The new "Palmer" song written for Mr. Sterling was greatly appreciated by him and well sung.

To carry out the Christmas thought for the month Grade 6 is studying Palestine. Scenes will be worked out on the sand table. Credit is to be given for outside reading.

A special invitation to all visitors Friday to drop into the two very interesting departments on the third floor of this building, manual training under Carlos Purinton and domestic science under Miss Helen Piper.

Purchase Street

The pupils in Grade 1 are dramatizing this week their new story, "Three Billy Goats Gruff."—The Thanksgiving scene on the sand table was removed Monday and a Christmas scene is being prepared by the children.—All but five can write their names now and are very proud of this fact.—Those who had perfect number papers last week were James Breen, Ruth Dondis, Charles Perry, Dorothy Harvey, Charles Havenner, Charles Wooster, Thelma Day, Vernon Crockett, Dorothy Dimick, George Phelps, Edward Parker, Eulalia Stanley, Thelma Stream.

The Purchase street teachers were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Ellen Cochran in honor of Miss Amy Joyce, whose marriage takes place next month. After an evening passed with sewing and music refreshments were served and the bride-to-be presented with a gift for her new home. Mrs. Helen Hull was present as a special guest.

Grade 6 had 99.03 per cent for the past month.—Delma Green left Tuesday morning for Palm Beach, Florida, for the winter. The class is looking forward to a letter from her.—We have been very much interested in watching the ball on our cotton plant reach maturity and now have a nice fluffy white ball. The class is making a study of the different processes, the picking of the cotton, cotton gin, lint, cotton, bales, and making into thread and cloth, samples of cotton cloth being brought to school to show the finished product. The seeds are also receiving attention, showing that no part is wasted. A study is being made of the different countries where the soil and climate are best fitted for its growth.

Crescent Street

Grades 3 and 4's perfect attendance people for the month are: Everett Allen, Norman Barbour, Linwood Aylward, Doris Blackman, Kenneth Cousins, Myra Plagg, Angelus Escorsio, James Huntley, Freeland Huntley, Faith Lucey, Evelyn McIntosh, Bessie Metcalf, Elizabeth Rackliff, Freda Scarles, Omar Scarles, Israel Snow, Sherwood Sprowl, Angie Staples, Ruth Teel, Clarence Wiley, Albion Wiley, Kenneth Williams, Clarence Richards and Marjorie Taylor.

Leaders in the Arithmetic Contest, Grade 3, for November are: Clarence Richards, Elizabeth Rackliff, Everett Allen, Doris Blackman, Angelo Escorsio, Mary Escorsio and Merton Haskell. In Grade 4 Arithmetic contest: Alice Ames, Algie Staples, Linwood Aylward, James Huntley, Israel Snow, and Kenneth Cousins.

Tyler School

Grade 2 is working on a "Hygiene

Project" which has been woven into a little playlet and parts assigned to the following children: Warder of Health Advice, Shirley Barbour; Cleanliness, Maryon Kellar; Posture, Myra Cook; Food, Alice Gay; Drink, Lewis Hadley; Exercise, Ernestine Simmons; Rest, Kathleen Willey; Cheerfulness, Leander Thomas; Safety, Herbert Pendleton. These children are also working on Christmas decorations for the room.

The pupils of Grade 1 have been working on a "Little Good Health Project" this month. Characters are as follows: Sick Child, Dorothy Annis; Good Little Phil, Sylvia Shafter; Harmless Powder, Lillian Freeman; Bottle of Medicine, Arlene Quimby; Sunshine, Lucille Rankin; Fresh Air, Howard Chase; Good Food, Eleanor Sylvester; Play, Ruth Humphrey; Cleanliness, Maudie Peterson.—The pupils are busy making cut out borders and Christmas bells for their room.—Dorothy Annis was chosen as the best Palmer girl by Mr. Sterling.

PENOBSCOT VIEW GRANGE

There is to be election of officers at Penobscot View Grange hall, Glencove tonight.

STONINGTON

Capt. and Mrs. Samuel Goss left Wednesday—the captain for Florida and Mrs. Goss undecided whether to go through or spend the winter in Boston. Dr. George B. Noyes after making several visits has returned home and put into winter quarters.

Stonington High School girls' and boys' basketball teams played Deer Isle High last Friday night at Deer Isle, the score being 20 to 3 girls, and 21 girls to 5 boys, favor of Stonington.

Mrs. Violet Goss, goes next Tuesday, to Boston and will make her home with her son and daughter, F. S. Small and Mrs. Henry C. Avery.

Mrs. Fannie Allen is visiting friends at Ellsworth.

Capt. B. F. Packard anchored in our harbor Saturday with a load of coal for Islesford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Torrey are visiting their son Norman at Hartford, Conn.

Juanita Chapter, O. E. S., will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary this Thursday evening with roll call and memorial exercises. The degrees will be conferred on one candidate and refreshments will be served. The sewing circle will hold a fair and sale in the banquet hall in the future but the date has not yet been set.

the lodge rooms Saturday, December 9. Sunset Temple, Pythian Sisters entertained a distinguished guest at a special meeting Tuesday evening, in the person of Grand Chief Inez Getchell of Augusta, who came to inspect the Temple. The date of the inspection had been set for Monday, Dec. 4, but M. E. C. Rose M. Turner is equal to any emergency and when she received word at 10 o'clock Tuesday forenoon that the Grand Chief would be there that evening she immediately got busy with most happy results. A large number of members were present to greet the visitor. The degrees were conferred upon three candidates and the Grand Chief found much to praise, especially in the ritualistic work, and the work of the degree staff. Her instructions were received with careful attention and at the close of her remarks she was presented with a beautiful bouquet of pinkies by P. C. Violet Goss. After the work clam stew was served in the newly decorated dining room and the members dispersed feeling that they had spent a very pleasant and profitable evening.

Dr. L. G. Tewksbury is celebrating the first anniversary of the opening of his picture theatre by having pictures every evening this week with matinees Thursday and Saturday afternoons. The theatre was opened Thanksgiving day of last year and the pictures were shown to twenty-seven persons. A small beginning, yes, but the doctor has worked unceasingly to procure the very best of pictures for his patrons and that his efforts have been successful is evidenced by the large audiences who fill the theatre at every performance. Nearly six hundred persons witnessed the two performances of Monte Cristo Thanksgiving Day and others being unable to find even standing room in the evening. Only clean comedy and the finest feature pictures are shown and the many friends of the genial doctor bespeak for him another very successful year.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new electric light plant. The poles have all been set and electricians are busy now wiring the houses. The company hopes to be able to turn on the power by the first of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Torrey returned Saturday from Hartford, Conn., where they spent Thanksgiving with their son Norman Torrey.

James Robbins is building a bungalow on Main street on the site of the old Green barn. He has it all boarded and partly shingled.
